

Chronology of #stop114a Campaign

Date	Description	Comment
18/4/2012	Nazri Aziz tabled the amendment in Dewan Rakyat. James Dawos Mamit supported the motion.	The amendment was passed after 2 nd and 3 rd reading.
9/5/2012	Dewan Negara passed the amendment.
22/5/2012	Nazri Aziz said the new Evidence Act is fair and internet users should be more careful and responsible.	Appeared in mStar Online at http://mstar.com.my/cerita.asp?sec=mstar_berita&file=/2012/5/22/mstar_berita/20120522124153
25/5/2012	Kathleen Tan spoke to Suaran Singh Sidhu, a property lawyer, on the amendments to the Evidence Act on BFM Radio's Current Affairs programme.
26/5/2012	Lim Guan Eng said Evidence Act amendment facilitates selective prosecution.	Available at http://www.malaysianmirror.com/media-buzz-detail/136-letters-to-the-editor/57810-evidence-act-amendment-facilitates-selective-prosecution
31/5/2012	CIJ Malaysia launched an online petition against the amendment at www.tinyurl.com/stop114a
	1Million Malaysians against Evidence (Amendment) (No2) Act 2012 Facebook page was launched.
6/6/2012	First press release of the update on the petition.	Over 1600 signatures collected.
	Amnesty International UK wrote about the campaign on their blog at http://www2.amnesty.org.uk/blogs/journalist-and-human-rights/malaysia-censorship	Written by Billy Briggs
	Marina Mahathir wrote about the chilling effects of the new amendments in her column.	Appeared in The Star at http://thestar.com.my/columnists/story.asp?file=/2012/6/6/columnists/musings/11415707&sec=musings
11/6/2012	Ads for #stop114a public forum appeared in Mkini
12/6/2012	CIJ Malaysia organized a public forum titled Section 114A Evidence Act: Crime-busting or Online Control? At KL Selangor Chinese Assembly Hall	Speakers: Asohan, Jac sm Kee, Jeff Sandhu, Foong Cheng Leong Moderator: Jac Ann Surin
13/6/2012	PSA Video about #stop114a was published on Youtube at www.tinyurl.com/stop114avideo
14/6/2012	VK Liew said technology capable of tracking hackers should be developed to help the accused persons charged under Evidence Act.
15/6/2012	IFEX promoted the campaign on their website at http://www.ifex.org/malaysia/2012/06/15/evidence_act/
16/6/2012	Khairy Jamaluddin said he is against the new provisions that place the burden of proof on	Appeared in Mkini at http://www.malaysiakini.com/news/2

	netizens.	01025 .
20/6/2012	Jac Kee was interviewed by Capital FM about the campaign
	Second press release of the update on the petition.	Over 2400 signatures collected.
23/6/2012 – 24/6/2012	CIJ promoted the petition during the KL Alternative Bookfest 2012 at Central Market.
25/6/2012	CIJ went to Parliament to submit the petition to Nazri Aziz but he was not available.
26/6/2012	New date for petition handover to Nazri's deputy VK Liew.	Brief meeting with VK Liew prior to handover at Parliament lobby, 4pm.
	VK Liew described the concerns over Section 114A as 'misplaced fears'	Appeared on Mkini at http://www.malaysiakini.com/news/201945
28/6/2012	Briefing for Opposition MPs hosted by PAS' Kamaruddin Jaafar (Later Sivarasa took over)	Attended by Nurul Izzah, Fong Po Kuan, Sim Tong Him, Hee Loy Sian, Syed Shahir, Ooi Heng, Fahmi Fadzil
	Pakatan Rakyat issued a statement against Section 114A	